C.S. Lewis is most famous for his series of children's stories, 'The Chronicles of Narnia'. Cut out and match the blurbs written below with the correct story book cover.

Blurb 1

This is the fourth book in the series. Peter, Susan, Edmund and Lucy return to Narnia to help a prince as he gathers an army together in a desperate attempt to rid his land of a false king.

Blurb 2

Digory and Polly meet and become friends. Their lives burst into adventure when Digory's Uncle Andrew, who thinks he is a magician, sends them to...somewhere. They wake up the evil Queen Jadis and witness the creation of the land of Narnia by the great lion, Aslan.

Blurb 3

Four English school children find their way through the back of a wardrobe into the magic land of Narnia. Here, they assist the great lion, Aslan to triumph over the White Witch who has cursed the land with an eternal winter.

Blurb 4

Peter is king of Narnia now. A boy named Shasta and a talking horse share an adventurous and dangerous journey to Narnia to warn everyone of an invasion.

Blurb 5

This is the final story in the chronicles. A false Aslan is roaming the land of Narnia ordering everyone to work for the Calormenes. Can Eustace and Jill find the true Aslan and bring back peace to the land? The last battle is the greatest of all!

Blurb 6

In the sixth story of the series, two English children endure extraordinary adventures as they go in search of a missing prince. Prince Rilian is held captive in Underland, the kingdom of the Emerald Witch.

Blurb 7

Lucy, Edmund and their cousin Eustace are magically transported onto the ship, the Dawn Treader; a ship built by King Caspian. He is searching for the seven lost friends of his father, the seven lords. On the voyage, the children meet fantastical creatures, including the great Aslan himself.
