

Local Government Quiz

Fill in the missing words using all you have learnt.

elected	towns	smaller	district borough and city councils
parish	community and town councils	one	services county councils

Local government is responsible for running _____ and _____ areas.

Its members are _____ by the people who live in these areas.

_____ are responsible for services across the whole of the county.

_____ cover smaller areas than county councils.

_____ operate at a level below district and borough councils. London boroughs, metropolitan boroughs and unitary authorities in shire areas have just _____ tier of local government, which provides all of the _____.

List five areas of responsibility of local government.

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____

5. _____

Local Government Quiz - Answers

Local Government is responsible for running towns and smaller areas. Its members are elected by the people who live in these areas.

County councils are responsible for services across the whole of the county.

District, borough and city councils cover smaller areas than county councils.

Parish, community and town councils operate at a level below district and borough councils.

London boroughs, metropolitan boroughs and unitary authorities in shire areas have just one tier of local government, which provides all of the services.

List five areas of responsibility of local government.

Accept any of the areas mentioned in the Jigsaw Pieces Activity: education, transport, planning, libraries, waste management, rubbish collection, recycling, housing, planning applications, providing allotments, bus shelters, community centres, play areas and tackling litter and graffiti.